“Health Care: It’s Still Complicated” at next Lunch with the League

The speaker for “Lunch with the League” on Tuesday, December 5, will be Walter Davis, who will discuss health care issues. The meeting will be held from 11:45 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Social Hall of the Oak Ridge Unitarian Universalist Church, located at 809 Oak Ridge Turnpike.

Davis has served as Executive Director of the Tennessee Health Care Campaign (THCC) in Nashville for the past 4-1/2 years. He previously served as Executive Director for the National Organizers Alliance in Washington, DC. He is a graduate of the University of Louisville (Kentucky Southern College), and served in Colombia in the Peace Corps. He was recognized in February 2017 as the Community Shares’ Danny Mayfield Champion of Change for life achievement in social justice.

The mission of THCC, a 28 year-old advocate organization, is to work for affordable, accessible health care for all Tennesseans.

Lunch with the League is a public service program open to the community. Membership in the League of Women Voters is not required and there is no cost to attend.

The presentation will begin at 12:00 noon. Lunches are provided by the Soup Kitchen and are available at 11:30 a.m. on a first-come basis for $8, or you may bring your own. Coffee and tea are provided.

The League of Women Voters of Oak Ridge, a nonpartisan political organization for men and women, encourages informed and active participation in government, works to increase understanding of major public policy issues, and influences public policy through education and advocacy.
